Please provide a written response to questions and statements below.

Fran Chaffin Memorial Scholarship:

Credit Unions: People Helping People

Credit unions live by the philosophy of “People Helping People.” In what ways have credit unions stayed committed to this philosophy?

Create your own 2-3 word philosophy and describe what this means to you and how you stay committed to this philosophy.

Judy A. Davis-Poore Memorial Scholarship:

The Cooperative Spirit

The credit union philosophy is based on both business principals and the cooperative spirit.

In the business world, what are some examples of the cooperative spirit? What is your favorite example of this? Why?

How have you demonstrated the cooperative spirit in your life?

Continuing Studies Scholarship:

Financial Education

Henrico FCU offers financial education regularly to children and adults.

Is financial education important for children? Is it important for adults? What do you think the greatest needs are in financial education? Why?
